CAROLINA SPART

WM. H. TRIMMIER.

Devoted to Southern Rights, Politics, Agriculture, und Miscellung.

VOL. XVII.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1861.

The Carolina Spartan.

til after the year expires $3.09.

No subscription taken for less than six months.

Money may be remitted through postmusters at our risk.

Job work of all kinds premptly executed.

Blanks, Law and Equity, continually on hand, printed to order. Advertisements inserted at the usual rates

THE SPARTAR circul: tes largely over this and adjoining districts, and offers an admirable men to our inends to come customers.

FORT SUMTER.

omelal Demand for its Surrender.

LETTER OF COLA I. W. BAYNE TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. WASHINGTON, January, 31 1861. To His Excellency James Buchanan, Pres-

that time present my credentials but verbally informed you that I borea letter from the Governor of South Carolina in regard dent sovereign, assumes the right to take to the occupation of Fort Sunter, which I into her own possession everything within a written communication from myself. The next day, be ore such communication could be made, I was waited upor by a Sendtor from Alabama, who stated that he came on the part of all the Sender of them in Washington from the States, at had already seeded from the United States, or would certainly have done so before the 1st day an individual or a government, which she may deem it necessary, for her honor or adjective to take into her recessary.

by themselves in civil strife; and fearing that the action of South Carolina night complicate the relations of your government to the second and second States, and therefore interfere with a perceptil solution of existing difficulties, these Senators tion made by these. Senators, to wit: that and e mountaing the ingress and ogress of "an arrangement should be a reed on be every ship that mers the port; the days tween the authorities of South Carolina and ferry boats that ply upon its waters, moving the States represented by the Senators but at the sufferance of aliens. An attack "might, in a Convention, devise a wise, just | upon this fort would scarcely improve it as and peaceable solution of existing difficult property, whatever the result; and if cap think (that is the Senators) that your State | account.

I am now instructed by the Governor of South Carolina to say, that his opinion as to the propriety of the demand which is confained in this letter thas not only been confained in this letter thas not only been confained in this letter than not only been confained in the letter of the line of the letter than not only the confaint that the present the confaint the present than the pre confirmed in this letter "has not only been confirmed by the circumstances which your (my) mission has developed, but is now increased to the conviction of its necessity. The safety of all secuting States requires it, every effort will be made to supply reinforcements." This as much as the safety of South (arclina. If it be so, that Fort Sumter is held as property the rights of the safety of property, then, as property, the rights, whatever they may be, of the United States, can be ascertained, and for the satisfaction of these rights the pledges of the State of South Carolina you are (I am) authorized to give." "If Fort Sumter is not held as property, it is held," say my instructions, as a military post, and such a

You will perceive that it is upon the presumption that it is solely as property that you continue to hold Fort Sumter hat I have been selected for the performance of the duty upon which I have entered. I do not come as a military man to demand SIR: I had the honor to hold a short in- the sucrender of a fortress, but as the legal terview with you on the 14th instant, in- officer of the State- its Attorney Generalformal and unofficial. Having been in- to claim for the State the exercise of its formed that you desired that whatever was | undoubted right of eminent domain, and to official should be, on both side , conducted pledge the State to make good all injury by written communications, I did not at to the rights of property which arise from would deliver the next day, under cover of her limits essential t maintain her honor a written communication from myself. The or her safety, irrespective of the question of February next.

The Scuator from Al-bama urged, that history gives ample guaranty that it will be made, upon a fair accounting, to the last dollar. The proposition in w is, that the proposition is with the authorities of South Carolina. He law officer should, under the authority of the Governor and his Council, distinctly please commenced between the Governor and his Carolina to make and bloody strife among those who were once brethren, it is hoped that on further consideration, you will not, on a mere question of South Carolina, which honor and necessity alike compel her to vindicate. Should please the faith of South Carolina to make South Carolina and your government would such compensation in regard to Fort Sunfor the regult surely does not rest with her.

and the result of the consultation was the consulta

"In the meantime," they say, "we tured, it would no longer be the subject of (South Carolina) should suffer Major An. To protect Fort Sunifer, morely as pro-

sure, in full force, those "high Christian and moral duties" referred to by your Secrea military post by a povernment she no ercion, of avowing peaceful intentions and the lay is the control section by special sections are mixed to the proposal section of the control section of the proposal se the proposition made by the Senators, viz: leney says: "I have determine I to send to "that no attack was to be made on Fort Sumpter during the period suggested, and that General of the State of South Carolina, dation as the right to occupy the fortress arms." It is difficult to consider this as Maj. Anderson should enjoy the facilities of and have instructed him to demand the communication, "etc., etc. I advert to this surrender of Fort Sumter in the harbor of In the letter of Senator Davis, and oth. You were told that South Carolina, as a point, however, for the purpo e of say ug, Charleston, to the constituted authorities that to send reinforcements to Fort Sum- of the State of South Carolina. The de- they say: "We therefore, think it espe- not tolerate the occupation, by ter could not serve as a means of pro e ting mand I have made of Major Anderson, cially due from South Carolina to our States troops, of a military post within her limits; post within the limits of South Carolina and preserving property—for, as must be and which I now make of you, is suggested." known to your government, it would inevitated because of my earnest desire to avoid States—that she sould, as far as she can sages, and in your correspondence, bad "laid bly lead to immediate hostilities, in which the bloodshed which a persistence in your consistently with her honor, avoid initiating much stress upon the character of your property on all sides would necessarily suf- attempt to retain the possession of that hostilities between her and the United duties, a signing from considering forts as > there is scarcely any considerations of more property, apart from honor and safety, which could induce her to do aught to jeo-pard that peace, still less to inaugurate a protraoted and civil war. She rests her po protracted and civil war. She rests her position on something higher than mere property. It is a consideration of her own dignity as a sovereign and the safety of her people, which prompts her to demand that this property should not longer be used as the consideration of her own dignity as a sovereign and the safety of her people, which prompts her to demand that this property should not longer be used as a military post by a government she no longer acknowledges," and that the subject of criticism. Until your letter of yesterday, you choose so to are authorized to give." The full scope the thought you so constantly present, and consider your relations, in everything which an imperative duty. It has in fact because an absolute necessity of her condition. Repudiating, as you do, the idea of coforcess, but as the legal officer of the State see a that not so much the lact as the pur- tary" right, that the proposal of compensaits Attorney General—to claim for the State the exercise of its undoubted right of eminent domain, and to piedge the State to make good all injury to the rights of property which arise from exercise of the been held from the completion of its con-claim." And lost this explicit language struction. These are national and defenshould not sufficiently deline your position, sive; and were a public enemy now to atyou add: "The proposition now is that tempt the capture of Charleston or the her (South Carelina) law officer should, and destruction of the commerce of its harbor, anthority of the Covernor and his Counci, the whole force of the batteries of this foranthority of the Covernor and his Counci, distinctly pledged the faith of South Carolina to make such compensation in regard to Fort Sumter, and its appurtenances and contents, to the full extent of the maney of the dignity or honor of the covernor and his Council, the model force of the batteries of this formulation to discuss the copolitical relations" of the United States (Government to anything within the term to anything within the term to contents, to the full extent of the money of the United States. value of the property of the United States. South Corolina, or become a source of ir-delivered ov r to the authorities of South ritation to her people, the President is at to have destroyed all "political relations" of one of the second of the secon was taken into the pessession of its present openpants.

The interposition of the Senators who have addressed you was a circumstance the useful successive terms which have addressed you was a circumstance on the useful successive terms which can be useful successive terms which the foreign the first force of the circumstances which have so severely and upon the employment of the words that the force and the interposition for the last two months should be received as conclusive evidence of his single three can be useful successive terms which the force and the first two months should be received as conclusive evidence of his single three can be useful successive terms which the force arms that two months should be received as conclusive evidence of his single three can be useful successive terms which the force arms that the force are considered to the force arms that the force arms the force arms that the force a can be used in such a connection rand sure in the circumstances which have so severeity, which is appreciate the high and generous in motives by which they were prompted, and while he tung approves the delay which, in deference to them, has taken place in the presentation of his demands, feels that it cannot longer be withheid.

I conclude with an extract from the instructions just received by me from the Government of South Carolina.

Can be used in such a connection rand sure by, when referring to a fort, or any other public of the circumstances which have so severeby, when referring to a fort, or any other public it, it is not accepted as a satisfactory public establishment, they on more the entire and undivided interest of the tinter in the first three in all incidences in the properties. The title of the Carolina it may be safely affirmed that neither lunstructions just received by me from the instructions just received by me from the instructions past received by me from the instruction of the search past in the instruction of the search past in the circumstances which have so severety when referring to a fort, or any other past in the instruction received the material policy of this Adaninstration towards (South Carolina) should suffer Major Anderson to obtain necessary supplies of food, fact, or water, and enjoy free communication by post or special messenger with the President, upon the understanding that the President will not send him reinforcements

President will not send him reinforcements

To procee the data armed occupant of south as a marked occupant to south Carolina.

State shart assault fort Squater, and perm the flowerment of South Carolina.

The letter of the President through the worst possibly means which can be resorted to for such an object.

Your reply to the Sendors, through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received as the reply to the sendors through Mr. Holl may be received by me from the circumstances above stated, is discount of the line of the ers, to yourself, under date of the 15th ult., separate, independent sovereignty, would -to say nothing of other slaveholding but that, inasmuch as you, in repeated meser.

South Carolina has every disposition to to secure to you that possession, but induce yourself give to the President the gratifymatter of property, South Carolina, so far as this matter of property, suggested by yourself, preserve the public peace, and feels, I am a calamity most deeply to be deplored." ing assurance that "South Carolina has eve- was concerned, would make compensation The character of the demand thus author- ry disposition to preserve the public peace, for all injury done the property in the exized to be made appears, under the influend since he is himself sincerely animated ergise of her sovereign right of eminent tary; and it is submitted that, on her part, there is scarcely any considerations of mere the Senators to which you refer, to have common and patriotic object must be of cerproposal to purchase! The idea of pur-

The right to send forward reinforce-ments when in the judgment of the Presi-States, sustained by a d claration in effect, can be closed for the property of the property of the United States for any one purpose for which it was originally constructed worth as all that the property is discussed where the United States for any one purpose for which it was originally constructed worth more than the property is discussed with the property is discussed with the property is discussed with the property is discussed by an armed garreson? Yet such has been no warning given as to the been flow ground upon which you have in the property of the property until South Carolina had dissolved her con- Officers of the Third Regiment of Volunmeetion with y ur Government. This g r- | teers, resulted in the election of Gen. James rison entered it in the night with every H. Williams, of Newberry, Colonel; Gora elrenmstance of secreey, after spiking the B. B. Foster, of Spartanburg, Lieutenantguns and burning the gun-carriages, and Colonel; and Major Jas. M. Baxter, of cutting down the flig staff of an adjacent Newberry, Major. fort, which was then abandoned.

-South Carolina had not taken Fort Sumterinto herown possession only because of

From the Southern Guardian Business in New York:

We learn from private sources that the apprehension of a general commercial crash exist in New York and Boston, Many houses, both in that city and Boston, have, we understand, already succumbed, and others will follow.

The New York papers say that rents are falling very much in New York—partieularly for large stores and first-class dwellings. For the former rents have fallen one-half.

A heavy dry goods firm, which had leased a splendid marble front building, on Broadway, for a term of years, offered the owner $50,000 to have the lease enneel

SAD ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn from Charleston that Mr. Clark Allen, member of the Abbeville Company, was unfortunately killed yesterday. He was running from one room to unother, and was pierced by a bayonet, in the bands of one of his companions in the eye, which penetrated his brain, causing almost instant death.

THE BREAKING UP.—Since the 6th of November, 1860, there have been one hundred and forty-five resignations in Federal Government, to wit: Members of the Cabinet, 7; Senators, 12; Members of the House of Representatives, 30; Federal officers in the Southern States-Collectors, &c., 9; in the Army in the Navy, 61. A pretty rap up; the work will go on yet for THE MILITARY DESPOT are now about one thousand troops quartered in Washingto from all accounts their conduct and arrogant in the extreme. of the Alexandria Sentinel was ingten last week. He says that on Me night an Alderman of the city of Was be subjected to the exercise of the right of coninent domain."

In your letter of yesterday (through your Secretary) you shift your position. You chaim that your Government bears to Fort Sumter "political relations of a much higher and more imposing character."

It was no part of my mission to discuss the "political relations" of the United States and the gravel and the was the "political relations" of the United States.

libwing the gravel and he was libped by the sentry, and he alk and. He says that Scotts to public houses, call for liquor, pay is asked, present a loaded pistol.

Citizens and strangers are fined twenty

From the South Carolinian.

MONTGOMERY, Ala, February 11 .- The her misplaced confidence is a government which deceived her. A fortress occupied under the Provisional Constitution. The considered by you not only as no cause of idency and Vice-Presidency gives general satisfaction. The election of Davis is owing election of Davis and Stephens to the Pres-